The South African Immigration Authorities now require that all visitors to South Africa must have TWO BLANK pages available in their passport which must lie side by side when the passport is open (i.e. a left and a right hand page). Please note that if you do need to apply for a visa and you are travelling with your children but without their other parent, you will require a letter of consent from the other parent which must be certified by the police - please contact the South African Embassy for further details. From 01 Oct 2011 visitors travelling onward to South Africa from any Yellow Fever infected area are required to supply a yellow fever certificate issued at least ten days before arrival in South Africa.

Visas British Citizens travelling to:

South Africa - British Citizens visiting South Africa on holiday for less than 90 days do not require visas as long as they are in possession of a return or onward flight ticket. After entry, extensions of stay may be sought from the Department of Home Affairs. Visitors who have overstayed without authority may be required to pay a fine, either on exit or at the nearest SA mission on their return to the UK (Or elsewhere). Visas are required for stays of more than 90 days.

Non British Citizens:

All other passport holders, including British nationals and British Subjects must contact the relevant consulate of the country of destination and any other countries where you transit through or stopover in, to check if a visa is required.

Vaccinations In some instances certain vaccinations are required or recommended for entry into a country. This may also apply even if you are in transit and the infected area is not your final destination. Please consult your GP or the following NHS and FCO websites for the most up to date information and health requirements: <http://www.nhs.uk/Planners/vaccinations/Pages/travelwhereandwhen.aspx>, <http://www.fco.gov.uk/en/travel-and-living-abroad/staying-safe/health/>

ABTA
ABTA 76705 ATOL 84357

This is an important document. Make sure that you take it with you when you travel.

ATOL Certificate

This confirms that your money is protected by the ATOL scheme and that you can get home if your travel company collapses.

This certificate sets out how the ATOL scheme will protect the people named on it for the parts of their trip listed below.

Who is protected?

Rev Mark Thomas, Dr Keri Thomas

Number of passengers: 2

What is protected?

17 Jul 2014 Virgin Atlantic VS601 London Heathrow to Johannesburg

18 Jul 2014 British Airways BA6409 Johannesburg to Cape Town

02 Aug 2014 Virgin Atlantic VS602 Johannesburg to London Heathrow

Who is protecting your flight?

Lotus International Ltd, ATOL number 84357, reference: 376WT4V

ATOL protected cost £2,264.00

Your protection

You are protected from when you were given this certificate until you return to the UK. If Lotus International Ltd stops trading, the passengers named above will either:

1 be returned to the UK; or

2 depending on the warning below, receive a refund for the amount above (or your deposit if that is all you have paid so far).

Your protection depends on the terms of the ATOL scheme (available at www.atol.org.uk).

If Lotus International Ltd stops trading, you must follow the instructions at www.atol.org.uk (where there will be details of arrangements to bring people back to the UK, and information on how people can claim their money back) or you can call (+44) 20 7453 6350.

Warning

This certificate only protects the flight you have booked, so you will not be able to claim a refund from ATOL if you asked to book accommodation or car hire at the same time as your flight and were given this certificate. However, you will be returned to the UK if the firm protecting your flight stops trading. Because of this, you may want to take advice on how you can protect your money. If you want to protect your trip with ATOL, you could ask for an ATOL-protected package or flight-plus instead.

By issuing this ATOL certificate, under Regulation 17 of the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012, Lotus International Ltd confirms that the flight to which it applies is sold in line with the ATOL held by Lotus International Ltd.

The ATOL scheme is run by the Civil Aviation Authority and paid for by the Air Travel Trust. To see what that is and what you can expect, together with full information on its terms and conditions, go to www.atol.org.uk.
